As a beneficiary of the Post-9/11 GI Bill, you are automatically eligible for the Yellow Ribbon program. Eligibility is at the 100 percent rate and is not affected by the number of students exercising the Yellow Ribbon benefit at Syracuse University.

Start by applying with the VA through e-Benefits. Then, submit your letter of eligibility and the university’s “Request for Certification” to the Veterans Resource Center.

In addition, you are eligible for:
- a book stipend;
- tutoring coverage; and
- a $3,000 housing grant through Syracuse University in addition to your monthly housing allowance (for on-campus housing only).

*based on 2017–2018 estimated tuition

For questions about Montgomery GI Bill, Tuition Assistance (TA), or Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment (VR&E), or for more detailed information about post-9/11 and other benefits, please contact the Veterans Resource Center at veterans@syr.edu.
For Veterans, Transitioning Service Members, & Eligible Family Members

As a current or former service member, you know the importance of teamwork when accomplishing goals. That’s why Syracuse has put together a team dedicated to making your transition to school as smooth and uncomplicated as possible.

Admissions
The Office of Admissions has dedicated staff for veterans, military, and military-connected students. Find out about the application process, major and minor programs, and learn more about the advantages of being a veteran at Syracuse University by contacting Jessica Calhoun in the Office of Admissions.

Office of Veteran and Military Affairs

The Office of Veteran and Military Affairs (OVMA) serves as the university’s single point of entry for all veteran- and military-related programs and initiatives. Committed to being the “Best Place for Veterans,” OVMA assists university stakeholders to support and empower military-connected students and veteran employees of Syracuse University.
